IN
APPEAL FROM ORDER NO.185 OF 2006

Shri Abhay Mahendra Jain	.. Applicant
v/s.
Shree Shrestha Sevashram (Ratnagiri) and others	.. Respondents

Mr. R.D. Suryawanshi for the applicant.
Mr. R.V. Govilkar for the respondents.

CORAM : A.M. KHANWILKAR, J.
DATED : 10TH JULY, 2007

P.C.

A statement is made by the counsel for the original appellant that henceforth, the appellant will not indulge in giving any unsolicited advise to third parties and that even if some official enquiry is made from any quarters, they would only forward the copy of the orders passed by the courts from time to time without expressing any opinion of their own. That assurance is accepted.

2. In view of the assurance given by the appellants, for the present, it is not necessary to consider the grievance in the application while disposing of this application. However, liberty is given to the applicant to approach the court in the event similar act of commission or omission is repeated by the appellants for which case, the court will consider request of appropriate action and pass necessary orders as may be advised. This assurance is given by the advocate for the appellants on the instructions of appellant No.1 who is personally present in court.

Application disposed of in the aforesaid terms.
